Subject: 🍂 Happy Thanksgiving from Sunrise 🍂

To Our Sunrise Family,

As a father and grandfather, nothing makes me happier than having everyone I love under one roof. Normally there are all kinds of sounds and smells coming from the kitchen on Thanksgiving. I can hear football and my family laughing in the background. And of course, we overindulge in some delicious food. These are the things that make the holiday so special. But it's the act of gathering—of enjoying each other's company around the table—that makes Thanksgiving one of my favorite holidays.

If you feel defeated by the realization that COVID-19 is forcing us to rethink yet another important event, you're not alone. This pandemic is long and hard and continuously tests our resolve. But I want you to know how thankful I am for the sacrifices your family has made, and continues to make, to keep our communities safe.

For our team members, who are donning and doffing personal protective equipment every day and working around the clock to keep our residents' spirits high and minds sharp, your commitment to social distancing shows them that you see their contributions and have their backs. Our heroes in orange show up each day with energy and enthusiasm, despite the personal challenges they may be dealing with at home as a result of this pandemic. They follow guidance from local health officials while still finding ways to help our residents enjoy meaningful connections, physical activity, and fresh air. And they offer companionship, conversation, and smiles that you can still see behind the masks they're wearing.

For our residents, who continue to demonstrate such strength and optimism it makes our hearts swell, your efforts to stop the spread of COVID-19 are an investment in their future—a showing of solidarity and support for those who are extremely vulnerable to this virus and tremendously valuable to our society.

When we look back on this year, as challenging as it has been, I believe we will be proud of the way we've banded together to protect our friends, families, and neighbors. We have never been more thankful for our Sunrise family. We wish you warmth, joy, and health this Thanksgiving.

Sincerely,

Chris Winkle
